

THE MOTIONLAB.BERLIN EXPERIENCE 🙄

Dedicated tours, pitches and insights into the Berlin home of hardtech innovation

WHO WE ARE

MotionLab Berlin is Germany's leading hardtech hub, where startups, engineers, and creatives come together to build a thriving community and prototypes.

But more than a simple makerspace, it is a thriving environment at the crossroads of the entire tech industry. Come experience our community and space through one of our tours, specifically curated for our educational and business partners.

Note - bank holidays will incur a 15% surcharge.
